Dear Walter:

I had a note from Ham Armstrong, under date of 16 February, about the Editorial Advisory Board Meeting. I am answering it to you as I imagine Ham is already on his way abroad.

Don't worry about the expenses of my trip as I was able to combine this visit to New York with plenty of official business, so that it is a proper charge against my own official travel account.

I have received with pleasure, and have by my side here, your ten-year "Foreign Affairs Bibliography." I consider it an absolutely invaluable publication, and I am suggesting that we buy several copies for use here in the Agency. I wish you would tell Henry Roberts of my appreciation for his admirable work which I know has involved a tremendous amount of painstaking research.

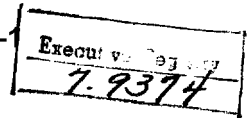

Sincerely,

AWD/jl (4 Mar 56)

Dear Allen:

Thanks ever so much for coming to our Editorial Advisory Board meeting last night. You added a lot to what was (for us) a very useful discussion.

Please let me know about the expenses of your trip so that FOREIGN AFFAIRS can reimburse you.

I have sent you, with my compliments, a copy of the recently published ten-year "Foreign Affairs Bibliography." Don't bother to acknowledge it. But if you find the time, do drop a line about it to Henry Roberts. I don't think he has had enough recognition for the enormous amount of painstaking and intelligent work he put into it.

As ever,

Ham

Thanks you once again for your hospitality in Washington & the help you gave me there.
